

Monday, 26 May 2008

To whom it may concern,

Reference: Omega Maintenance Group Pty Ltd

Omega Maintenance Group Pty Ltd (Previously known as J.G. Stevenson, Property Services Pty Ltd) has successfully completed works for Sydney Water Corporation. Omega Maintenance Group has performed these works with great diligence; bring all projects to a high standard of completion.

Works have included office and laboratory refurbishments, and the concrete remedial repairs to Sydney Water's high-rise building located in the Sydney central business district.

Omega Maintenance has obtained NSW State Government Occupational Health and Safety accreditation, CACC accreditations through Sydney Water Corporation and his employee's are trained with working in Confined Spaces, allowing them to carry out works in Sewage Pumping Stations, these works have include crack injection, concrete spalling repairs and epoxy coating to the highest standards.

The Omega Maintenance Group continue to be invited by Sydney Water Corporation to tender for works as a result of having completed projects on time within budget and to a high standard of quality.

Yours sincerely,

Michael Massih
Senior Contracts Manager, Property
Sydney Water Corporation.